

Directors and Associates

Margie Hetherington, Director

Margie Hetherington is an original co-founder of Hetherington Veal, established in 1988.

Having graduated with a BA(hons) Graphic Design she worked for a variety of top agencies, including Michael Peters (now Corporate Edge) prior to establishing Hetherington Veal.

Judy Veal, Director

Judy Veal, also a co-founder of Hetherington Veal, gained her working experience after graduating with 1st class honours in Graphic Design, at agencies such as Collett Dickenson Pearce Advertising Agency and Lewis Moberly, prior to establishing Hetherington Veal.

She has also worked on a freelance basis for Wickens Tutt Southgate, WPP (Coley Porter Bell) and Holmes & Marchant.

Associates

Through our associates we offer multi-disciplinary web development and implementation services, including e-commerce and database applications, as well as complete turnkey solutions to our clients.

By joining forces with talented web developers, to complement our core design services, we can offer fully integrated solutions, that are strategically on brief, look good but also function exceptionally well.

Jeff Home & Dan Nye Associates

Jeff and Dan joined forces with Hetherington Veal in 2001, to work on a project for Northern Heart Gallery, an on-line gallery representing artists from the North East of England

The venture proved so successful, both from an operational and design perspective, that we decided to cement the relationship and formalise our association.

Jeff Home, Associate

Jeff graduated from Otago University with a bachelor's degree in Computer Science in 1991 and began his career working for Apple Computers (NZ) Ltd, He then moved to London to work for USB Warburg and has completed several projects for design agencies and software developers both in London and New York.

Dan Nye, Associate

Dan read Computer Science at Brunel University, and began his career working for ICL as a frontline support specialist. He has since worked for ERM as UK system administrator, and recently held a post in New York working on a high profile web application for Deutsche Bank New York.

He has also formed a company that specialises in web development and intranet solutions.

Other associates

Hetherington Veal are constantly searching out and sourcing new talent in order to complement our core business skills in an ever-changing world. This now includes film-makers and musicians. We have recently worked with a composer and film editor to produce a wholly original corporate video.
